BKMAS Class Etiquette

Arriving at Class

- Arrive at the training hall at least 15 mins before the class start time
- Bow when entering the training hall
- Bow to the Dan holders
- Avoid loud conversation
- Conduct themselves in a manner fitting of the BKMAS spirit
- Stretch themselves in preparation to the class

Lateness

If a student is late arriving to class, they are to approach one of the instructors who are not carrying out instruction and request permission to attend the class. Once permission has been given they are to line up at the back of the class. Upon the next formal line-up the student will take their correct place in the line.

During Class

Students are to pay attention and not interrupt when instruction is being given. If a student is unsure of an instruction they are to ask the instructor for confirmation.

Leaving Class

- Bow when leaving the training hall
- Bow to the Dan holders
- Make sure you have all your belongings before leaving the training hall
- Students are to leave the training hall in a clean and tidy state
